Dr. Elion’s speech will be entitled, “Doc for Docs: Giving ‘The Talk’ to Physicians,” and will center on how to properly discuss CDI with a reluctant physician or new house staff in need of training. The talk will include a presentation that is ready to be given to physicians while also supplying commentary about the presentation, along with examples, tips, and stories about the challenges of this important task.

“The ACDIS Conference is an important event in our industry and one that I look forward to throughout the year,” said Dr. Elion. “I’m honored to have this forum to share insights with my colleagues and fellow documentation improvement enthusiasts. This is an excellent networking event and everyone who attends comes away with new ideas, concepts and skills they can apply moving forward.”

Dr. Elion will also be playing the guitar in the ChartWise booth and singing his popular original CDI melodies.

The eighth annual ACDIS Conference will be held on May 19-21, 2015, in San Antonio, Texas at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center. The Conference will feature four tracks that include a diverse range of sessions on the latest trends and cutting-edge techniques to enhance CDI programs.
